Assessment Worksheet

Name _____ Date _____

According to the European Commission, integration should be understood as:
A two-way process based on mutual rights and corresponding obligations of legally resident third country nationals and the host society which provides for full participation of the immigrant.[1]

Taking into account what you heard and read in today's lesson about the various integration perspectives and the future of Islam in Europe, as well as in the previous lessons about integration issues (Lesson 2) and the headscarf debate (Lesson 3):

How do you perceive the future of Islam and Muslims in Europe?

- Which responsibilities should European governments and citizens take on in order to further the integration and participation of Muslims and to avoid confrontations?
- Which responsibilities should Muslims in Europe take on in order to further their integration and participation and to avoid confrontations?

[1] "Communication of the Commission to the Council, the European Parliament, the European Economic and Social Committee and the Committee of the Regions, on immigration, integration and employment." European Commission, Brussels, June 2003. http://europa.eu.int/comm/employment_social/news/2003/jun/com2003336_en.pdf