

Here's your chance to speak up on an issue that really matters and be heard by other students who actually care.

YOUTH SUMMIT 2005

Institutionalized Racism from a Global Perspective

It's time to speak up and ask the big questions:
What is racism? When and where does it occur?
Why does it matter? What can we do about it?
Join us for dialogue about racism in the U.S. and around the world, both past and present.

Who: Middle and High School Students

When: Saturday, March 12, 2005 9 am — 1 pm

Where: Bellevue Community College

3000 Landerholm Circle SE Bellevue, WA

Cost: It's free!

FOOD WILL BE PROVIDED!

Contact us about Bus Transportation from Seattle.

Register online at <http://www.world-affairs.org/calendar.cfm> or call (206) 441-5910

Organized by the World Affairs Council Global Classroom Youth Leadership Program, with funding provided by a Washington State Civil Liberties Public Education grant; Co-sponsored by Bellevue Community College, Bellevue Public Schools, and Seattle School District Office of Equity and Race Relations.

Teachers: Please post this flyer or make copies and distribute it to interested students.