

The World Affairs Council of Seattle
presents
Youth Summit 2005: Beyond Islam

Understanding Muslims in Our Communities and Beyond

Explore Muslim cultures around the world

View the Collections & Stories of American Muslims exhibit

Hear from Amir Muhammad on the history of Muslims in America

Break the Ramadan fast with members of local Muslim communities

DID YOU KNOW?

- Islam in America dates back 300 years.
- More Muslims live in South Asia (India, Pakistan, Bangladesh) than in the entire Middle East.
- With more than 200 million Muslims, Indonesia is the world's biggest Muslim country.

Saturday, October 8, 2005 3:00 – 7:30 pm
(registration begins at 2:30; dinner 6:30-7:30)

Old Redmond Schoolhouse Community Center
16600 NE 80th St, Redmond, WA 98073

The summit is free and dinner will be provided. It is for middle, high school, and college students. Teachers and family members are also welcome to participate.

Please register in advance!

Email: globalclassroom@world-affairs.org with number and names of attendees and grade level of students, or call (206) 441-5910 between 9-5 Mon-Fri.

Organized by the World Affairs Council Global Classroom Youth Leadership Program, funded by a grant from the U.S. Institute of Peace. Many thanks to the Al Islam Center of Seattle for making the Collections & Stories of American Muslims available for the Summit. This project could not have been done without the generous support of many Muslim leaders and organizations in the area.

Visit the Collections & Stories of American Muslims exhibit October 3-7 at the Seattle Vocational Institute
2120 S. Jackson St. Seattle, WA 98144. Hours: Mon 11-5 | Tue & Wed 8:30-7 | Thu 8:30-5 | Fri 8:30-3