

World Affairs Council Fellows Program

The World Affairs Council Fellows Program offers a unique professional development opportunity to a small cohort of greater Seattle's business and community leaders representing a broad range of backgrounds and interests.

The Fellows convene monthly for private roundtable discussions with carefully selected, high caliber international experts who offer unparalleled insight into current global issues, in addition to meeting throughout the year for Council events and dedicated networking opportunities.

Benefits

Monthly (September-June) off the record private roundtables with international experts to build greater understanding of global issues with local relevance.

Productive connections and dialogue between participants representing business, government, military, education, and non-profit sectors. Quarterly networking receptions with the cohort to build ties within the group.

Year-long World Affairs Council membership with further opportunities to participate in substantive policy discussions and invite-only receptions.

Access to the extensive Fellows program alumni network where participants continue with quarterly breakfast discussions, drive ongoing conversations, and serve as proactive leaders and bridge builders in their respective communities.

Highlights from Last Year

Dr. Hiski Haukkala: Director of the Finnish Institute of International Affairs

Amy Hogan-Burney: Vice President for Cybersecurity Policy and Protection, Microsoft

Ambassador Robert Holleyman: Former Deputy United States Trade Representative (2014-2017)

Kara Hurst: Chief Sustainability Officer, Amazon

Ankur Vora: Chief Strategy Officer, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

Program Fees

Total cost of the program is $2,500 for Fellows from the private sector and large nonprofits, or $2,000 for Fellows from small non-profits and the public sector.

Companies often subsidize the program costs for their employees and benefit from fostering greater global competency, strengthening client relationships, and elevating their profile as a globally-oriented organization.

Priority Deadline: July 25
